

Xi'an Foreign Business Forum

Membership Registration

Welcome to Xi'an Foreign Business Forum.

Mission Statement

The Forum exists as a stage for bringing the foreign community together socially, providing a support mechanism to its members as a vehicle to ultimately be able to voice opinions and plans to the local government.

Activities

The Forum holds regular social events including a bi-monthly dinner for members their spouses and partners.

Frequent business lunches with guest speakers and local business presenters are being arranged cost to be advised.

Plans are in hand for family friendly events several times a year to include Forum members' children. Other suggested activities include possible factory tours and industry introductions by Forum members in their respective fields.

The XFBB website provides information about the forum and regular updates about events and activities. Visit us at <http://www.xianfbf.com/>.

It is also hoped in the future to provide informal support for expatriate families.

Membership

Membership is open to all foreigners earning a living in Xi'an, their spouses, and any Chinese national at or above an upper managerial or director level position within an international company.

Membership fees for the 2010 calendar year have been established by the XFBB committee and are outlined below:

- Annual membership fee for 1 Jan - 31 Dec 2010 RMB400 (RMB300 for partners) if paid after 1 February 09 and before 30 June 2010. If paid before 31 January 2010 members will enjoy a discounted fee of RMB350 (RMB250 for partners).
- Half year membership (if paid after 30 June) RMB200 (RMB150 for partners).

Please complete the Application Form attached and include a business card

Xi'an Foreign Business Forum

Membership Application Form

Name _____

Company _____

Position Held _____

(Please include business card)

Email _____

Phone/Mobile Number _____

Other Information (optional)

Name of Spouse/Partner _____

Email _____

Phone/Mobile _____

If you would be interested in family friendly activities please give details of your Children's names, ages and interests

